

Dear Jesus,

I know you have a plan for my life, and that you want me to have a happy and fulfilling life. But I am so confused, and I'm kind of afraid of what you'll tell me if I ask you what you want me to do. I'm afraid that you'll ask me to give up to much, that I won't be able to do what I want to do.

So Lord, I'm asking you to show me what you want me to do with my life and for the grace to want that too.

Amen.

- Your beloved daughter

Come join us!

on May 18 & 19, 2012 for the St. Thérèse Discernment Retreat for young women.

Discernment is the process of sorting things out. This retreat is meant to help you to pray and listen and to sort out what God wants you to do.

- You will learn a bit about prayer, the different ways God can speak to you and about the different states of life you could be called to.
- You will learn more about religious life in particular and will get the chance to meet and spend time with Sisters.
- You will get to know and have fun with other young women who are also trying to find and follow the path Christ has marked out for them.

To attend, you must be at least entering your sophomore year in high school this coming school year.
St. Thérèse is the patron saint for vocations, which is why we have chosen her as the patron for this retreat.

Run by: The Servants of the Pierced Hearts of Jesus and Mary,
The Sisters of St. Francis of the Immaculate Conception, The Sisters of Mary of the Presentation, and The Sisters of the Third Order of St. Francis
